

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS
LT. GEORGE E. DIXON CAMP #1962, ILLINOIS DIVISION, SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS, AS ESTABLISHED NOVEMBER 8, 2001 AT Belleville, St. Clair Co., IL. (As amended August 11, 2008)

The Constitution and By-Laws, Lt. George E. Dixon Camp, Illinois Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans is based upon the SCV National Constitution and the Illinois Division Constitution, and shall conform to all elements of those documents. No section or provision of this document may be inferred or construed to contravene any provision presented in the aforesaid documents.

PREAMBLE

In the name of a reunited country, the Lt. George E. Dixon Camp declares the following purposes:

An unquestioned allegiance to the Constitution of the United States of America, largely written and expounded by Southern men, the very Magna Carta of our liberties; a strict construction of all sections conferring power upon the Federal Government and the implied and understood reservations to the States arising therefrom and a general attitude of opposition to further amendment thereof We adhere to the principles of the Great Charter of England granted at Runnymede, 1215 A.D., and the Anglo-Saxon rights and personal liberties transmitted to us thereunder; to associate in one united, compact body all men of Confederate ancestry and to cultivate, perpetuate and sanctify the ties of fraternity and friendship entailed thereby-, to aid and encourage the recording and teaching with impartiality of all Southern history and achievement from Jamestown to this present era, seeing to it especially that the events of the War Between the States are authentically and clearly written and that all documents, relics and mementos produced and handed down by the active participants therein are properly treasured and preserved for posterity; to comfort, succor and assist needy Sons of Confederate Veterans, their wives, widows and orphans-, to urge, aid and assist in the erection of suitable and enduring monuments and memorials to all Southern valor, military and civil, wherever done and wherever found, particularly stressing that of our heroic Confederate ancestors who, by their sacrifice, perpetuated unto us and our descendants that glorious heritage of valor, chivalry and honor which we now hold and venerate; and to instill in our descendants a devotion to and reverence for the principles represented by the Confederate States of America, to the honor, glory and memory of our fathers who fought in that Cause

Therefore, we, the representatives of the Camp, in meeting, do adopt, ordain and establish this Constitution on November 8, 2001 at Belleville, IL.

Section 1, This Camp shall be known as the Lt. George E. Dixon Camp #1962, Sons of Confederate Veterans, and is a part of the Illinois Division, SCV.

Section 2. This Constitution shall be the bylaws of the Lt. George E. Dixon Camp #1962 for all purposes under State or Federal law.

ARTICLE II - NATURE

Section 1 The Lt. George E. Dixon Camp #1962, Illinois Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans, shall be historical, fraternal, educational, charitable, benevolent, patriotic, non-political and non-sectarian in nature, and its purposes shall include but not be limited to the following:

- a. Collecting and preserving manuscripts, books papers, documents, flags, relics and mementos relating to the War Between the States and the State of Illinois for the purpose of assisting in the preservation and perpetuation of the history of the same
- b. To illuminate and clarify the great constitutional, political, social and economic issues and events leading to the War, and the patriotic motives and heroism of our ancestors in the field, on the water, and the Confederate States of America.
- c. To perpetuate the memory of the unparalleled bravery, constancy and fortitude of the Confederate soldier, sailor, governmental official or civilian by the erection, care and/or repair of monuments and memorial tablets, by properly marking and caring for the graves of Confederate soldiers, sailors, governmental officials and civilians and by conducting periodic memorial services in their honor.

ARTICLE III - ORGANIZATION

Section 1.

- a. The Camp shall consist of at least seven (7) dues-paid Sons of Confederate Veterans (SCV) members. For purposes of this constitution, SCV members are qualified males, 16 years or older, with lineal or collateral lineage to a Confederate Veteran.

- b. In addition to the minimum number of required SCV members, the camp may have sympathizer members. Those shall be those men and women who do not qualify as SCV members but who are interested in and support the Southern Cause. They shall not be allowed to be an officer in the camp and shall not be allowed to vote on any official business concerning SCV matters. They shall be encouraged to participate in all activities and functions where appropriate, but not as representatives of the SCV. Said members shall be assessed annual camp membership fees in accordance with Article IV, Section 2 e., and shall receive a membership card stating they are members of the Knights of the Golden Circle in support of the Lt. George E. Dixon Camp, Illinois Division, SCV. They can also subscribe to the SCV magazine. There shall be no more members of the Knights of the Golden Circle than there are regular members in good standing of the camp.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership in the Lt. George E. Dixon Camp, Illinois Division, SCV shall be in accordance with National and Division rules for membership in the General Confederation of the SCV, located within the State of Illinois. There shall be three categories of membership, namely SCV members and sympathizer members (those persons 12 years or older without lineal or collateral heritage to a Confederate veteran but interest in Confederate history) and associate members (those SCV members who have primary membership in another camp).

a. SCV members are the primary members of the camp and shall be reportable to the Division and to National Headquarters. They shall be the only ones allowed to hold elected office and to be eligible to vote on SCV business.

b. Sympathizers shall be known as Knights and Ladies of the Golden Circle. Knights and Ladies of the Golden Circle shall be allowed full activity in the camp's activities and shall be allowed and encouraged to hold committee positions, but shall not be allowed to vote on SCV matters. These members are not reportable to the Division or National Headquarters. Sympathizers wishing to join the Knights and Ladies of the Golden Circle in support of the camp must be sponsored in by a current SCV member of the camp in good standing who will introduce the candidate and propose him or her for membership. The Camp Adjutant will approve the application for membership.

c. Associate members shall not be allowed to hold an elected office, but shall be encouraged to participate fully in all camp activities. They shall be allowed to vote on SCV matters affecting the camp. These members are not reportable to the Division or National Headquarters.
