H. L. Hunley Junior AFROTC Award Medal & Service Ribbon Presentations

CERTIFICATE

On behalf of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, the Division, and the Lt. George E. Dixon Camp #1962, I would like to present the JROTC H. L. Hunley Award to the cadet who most demonstrated the core values of honor, courage, and in particular commitment to his/her unit during the 2016-2017 school year. These were the same values exhibited by the last crew of the C. S. S. H. L. Hunley who courageously made the commitment to honorably risk and ultimately give their lives in defense of their country and the City of Charleston, S. C. after two crews had already suffered tremendous loss in previous training exercises.

Given under my hand

(May 5, O'Fallon IL)

Colonel Moulton, the detachment commander, had bragging rights when compared against 880 AFJROTC programs in the country. His praise of the O'Fallon Township High School (OTHS) AFJROTC cadets (IL – 20051) is listed below:

- Largest cadet core in their history – total of 190 at the beginning – now 173 cadets strong
- Committed to the core value of “service before self.” Devoted 6,400 hours of community service
- Over 40% earned the Commendation Service Award
- The core value of “excellence in all they do” showed in their Drill Team. For the 8th consecutive year, they won the St. Louis Gateway to the West award. These cadets should be commended for their diligence in getting up to practice at 6:00 a.m. even in the dead of winter. They competed in the Air Force Drill National Competition where Cadet Kaitlyn Smith won the 1st National Champion award in March 2017.
- OTHS is a major feeder to the USAF Academy. Two cadets are scheduled to attend this year.

The members and friends of the Lt. George E. Dixon Camp #1962, SCV, conducted their monthly muster at 6:32 p.m. on May 9, 2017 at the SWIC PSOP Center, 201 North Church Street, Belleville IL this being the 5th Muster of the year for 2017.

CAMP DIXON MEETING MINUTES ~ MAY 9, 2017 Muster (cont'd)

PROCEDURAL BUSINESS

APRIL 11 MEETING MINUTES. Motion was made to accept the minutes by Jim Lumma, seconded by Chris Ziebold. Motion carried. Minutes accepted.

FINANCIAL REPORT (Adjutant Red). Ralph Oelschlager made a motion to accept, seconded by Jim Lumma. Motion carried.

COMMUNICATIONS

THANK YOU FROM KEVIN CULP (Adjutant Red). Mr. Culp is the father of Cadet/MSgt Hannah Culp, recipient of the Mascoutah AFJROTC SCV Hunley award. He thanked me for my words of guidance upon her move out of state. This was especially nice since Col Lanning, the detachment commander, always encourages thank-you notes be sent. Out of four high schools, only Mascoutah does this. The note from her father was a nice touch, in addition to Hannah's note. Hannah was a first-year cadet and made it to MSgt. Sharp cadet!

OLD BUSINESS/REPORTS FROM THE FIELD

AFJROTC H. L. HUNLEY AWARDS (Adjutant Red). Special thank-you to Chris Ziebold for his $100 donation that paid for most of the four Hunley awards. Second-year cadets were the recipients -- $30 for each award -- cheap advertising for the cause.

ILL DIV COMMANDER'S CONFERENCE CALL, April 26, 2017 (Ill Div Cmdr Red). Traditionally, once a year, I interact with the people at the state level. The last couple years -- real problems--as south as Marion and up to the Canadian border -- too much travel to commit them to meeting. A state get-together was difficult so now we've been having a conference call. Four active camps and one on paper. Had a regular agenda -- talked about some problem areas. Aiming for a real reunion next April (1st Saturday after tax deadline). Would like quite a few of us to go to Springfield -- meet and greet -- do collective things we used to do. Along list of organizations is suffering because people aren't committed to causes. Aiming for a real conference together.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE, MOUND CITY NATIONAL CEMETERY, MAY 27, 10:00 a.m. (Adjutant Red). Must depart from my house at 7:30 a.m. to make it in time. Plan to arrive by 9:30 in order to take part in the main observance to honor the 1,000 Confederates buried there. We are a token group to support the buried. If we don't show up, it won't happen.

CAMP POLO SHIRTS AVAILABLE TONIGHT (Compatriot J. C. Gideon). $24 each -- check payable to J. C. Gideon. We could do something in the future; for example, caps or sweatshirts. Please tell me what you want.

MEMORIAL DAY AT JEFFERSON BARRACKS NATIONAL CEMETERY, MAY 29, SHOW TIME 9:30 a.m. (Adjutant Red). Observance starts at 10:00. Encourage you to attend and join the Utz Camp and the Sterling Price Camp. Last year, 250 people showed up (a big difference from the 1,000 attendees in years past. If you have a uniform, please wear it. (If not, I have a few to share.) We generally meet at the Information Center -- then march into the parade ground.

FUND-RAISING IDEAS FOR FAMILY RELIEF PROJECT FOR THANKSGIVING OR CHRISTMAS (Adjutant Red). We haven't been active in community service, but we need money to do this. Need to find another way -- perhaps reach into our pockets or sell pencils on the street. Must decide to try it for Thanksgiving or Christmas ~ for 1, 2, or 3 families? It usually costs about $250 per family at Christmas (gifts and a meal) ~ at Thanksgiving $60 for a meal. Who should we help? Ask members, high schools, churches who might have legitimate needs. Perhaps start off with two families. An Applebee's fundraiser takes 30 people for 4-5 hours to pull it off. Don't need a commitment tonight but at next meeting. Johnny/Mike: let's talk about suggestions.

FREE MAGAZINES (Lady Janice Beasley). Help yourself to these free magazines.

PLANTS FOR THE TAKING (Chaplain Biekert). These are free for you.

COCKADE FOR MISSISSIPPI (2nd Lt Commander Stanton). Show sympathy for your ancestor and purchase a cockade available at web site: creative cockade.

Mark DeSelms presented a briefing on The Battle of Shiloh. Although many present had heard the history before, Mark told it in such a way as to make it an almost personal experience. He gave great insight into the mindset of the new soldier's experience of the two- day battle as the events unfolded. Mark described missed opportunities on both sides that could have greatly changed the outcome. Mark also included background information on some of the leaders of both sides which influenced their decisions that day.

MOUND CITY MEMORIAL OBSERVANCE

(SATURDAY, MAY 27, 2017, MOUND CITY NATIONAL CEMETERY, MOUND CITY IL). Camp Dixon Members experienced a very hot humid day of 84 degrees in Mound City. Many thanks for enduring the heat and their taking the time and trouble from their Memorial Day weekend to make the long trip to travel to this annual observance. Much gratitude to 1st Lt Commander Ron Lakin, Adjutant Gale Red, Lady Janice Beasley (the Confederate widow), and Compatriots Bobby Samuel, Phil Tate, John McKee (our expert photographer), Jim Lumma, J. C. Gideon, John Stanton, and Justin Ottolini. Special thanks to Phil for driving our group to/from Mound City. Members attended the main ceremony held at the pavilion which focused on women veterans, and then celebrated the Confederate ceremony honoring over 1,000 Confederates. Bobby coordinated the event and was the keynote speaker. He presented himself as General Robert E. Lee and presented a short review of his life. For the buried Confederates, ritual honors and a salute of honor by muskets and cannons followed.

May we always remember and pay tribute to our Confederate soldier ancestors!

MEMORIAL DAY AT JEFFERSON BARRACKS

Memorial Day, originally known as Decoration Day, was conceived after the Civil War as a way to honor the Union's war dead, with Southern states setting aside separate days to honor fallen Confederate soldiers. By the early 20th century, the holiday had evolved to honor all military members who died in service. It is a holiday honoring and commemorating all American soldiers who have given the ultimate sacrifice, their lives, while serving our great country. Lest we forget, it is not a "Happy Memorial Day" but meant to be a day of national mourning and remembrance of each one ~ these brave men and women.

(MONDAY, MAY 29, 2017, JEFFERSON BARRACKS NATIONAL CEMETERY, ST. LOUIS MO). The ceremony, held at Jefferson Barracks, is a most prestigious place. In fact, it is the 5th largest national cemetery established in 1866 with the first burial in 1827. Camp Dixon members who participated in the Memorial Day tribute at Jefferson Barracks were: 1st Lt Commander Ron Lakin, Adjutant Gale Red, and Compatriots Dwight Moore, Phil Tate, J. C. Gideon, Dave Schmitt, Steve Wilson, and Matthew King. They marched from the Information Center and witnessed the Union and Confederate ceremonies while enjoying a breathtaking view of flags at each headstone/marker waving in the warm breeze.

We had our Charter signing on April 27, which was just our fourth meeting since we first gathered to undertake to establish a Camp.
